

U21 Health and Rehabilitation Sciences 2007

Practice education paper

- "Clinical education and practice placements in Allied Health" accepted for publication in the Journal of Allied Health
- Thanks was given to all members with a special thanks to Sylvia Rodger (UQ) for her driving role and also to Lorraine Devitt (Uni Melb)

Different forms of learning

- Gwen Jull Presented a paper: "Standardized patients – experiences and developments at the University of Queensland"
- Edwin Yiu presented his research proposal: Tele assessment in voice risk assessment

Nexus between research / education / clinical practice

- Maureen Simmonds (McGill) presented a paper: "Strengthening the research / education / clinical practice nexus"
- Eva Nordmark (Lund) presented work on teaching critical thinking and reflective practice through an on line program

- Trevor Russell (UQ) presented a paper: "Links between eHealth and group and disciplinary group"
  - TR to approach steering committee to incorporate some of our 3rd world placements under the banner of U21/SCT
  - A guide to be developed including information on the SCT/U21 email system
  - Development of an allied health consultant database

- Benchmarking – The group will upgrade its benchmarking documentation
- e-Health
  - Series of teleconferences leading up to next years meeting to prepare for a wide ranging discussion on curriculum issues. The outcome of which is planned to be the development of a professional issues paper titled:
    - "Challenging the current paradigms of practice education"