

U21 Health Sciences

FINAL PROGRAMME – U21 E-HEALTH WORKSHOP

Monday 24 September

Venue: Telemedicine Centre, 2nd Floor, William MW Mong Block at the Sassoon Road Campus, Hong Kong University

Monday 24 September 2007 HANDS-ON WORKSHOP – PRACTICAL ASPECTS OF TELEHEALTH Coordinator: Richard Wootton, Centre for Online Health, UQ
13:30	Registration. Telemedicine Centre
14:00-14:10	Opening address by Peter Brooks / Niv Patil / Richard Wootton Then break into small sessions: Group A. Clinical Skills Lab 1 How to take better photographs (Janelle Jakowenko) Group B. Clinical Skills Lab 2 Practice with e-referrals through the SCT-U21 system (Richard Wootton) Group C. Clinical Skills Lab 3 How to do a cost-minimisation analysis (Anthony Smith) NOTE - participants should bring a digital camera for session A and a calculator for session C
14:10-15:00	Groups A, B, C
15:10-16:00	Groups B, C, A
16:10-17:00	Groups C, A, B

Notes

This will be a closed workshop, with a maximum of 50 registrants (i.e. the individual sessions will have up to 17 participants each).

FINAL PROGRAMME – U21 E-HEALTH WORKSHOP

Tuesday 25 September 2007

Venue: Telemedicine Centre, 2nd Floor, William MW Mong Block at the Sassoon Road Campus, Hong Kong University

Tuesday 25 September 2007
08:00-09:00	Registration. Telemedicine Centre
09:00-10:30	Session 1 – Background to U21 E-Health Activities Chair: Peter Brooks <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Host introduction (Niv Patil, HKU) 2. The Swinfen Charitable Trust – U21 Consortium Project (Peter Brooks, UQ & Richard Wootton, UQ) 3. E-health policy and professional portability (Richard Scott, U Calgary) 4. Internationalism and e-health (Kendall Ho, UBC) 5. Group discussion: Moving forward
10:30-11:00	Coffee
11:00-11:45 11:45-12:30	Session 2 – Opportunities for U21 E-Health Activities Chair: Peter Brooks <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Opportunities for telehealth: the Asian perspective (Shariq Khoja, Aga Khan University) 2. Opportunities for tele-education (Steve Baxendale, WHO South Pacific & Richard Wootton, UQ)
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Session 3 - Case Studies in E-Health/E-Education Chair: Richard Wootton <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Tele-education (John Spinks, HKU) 2. Tele-geriatrics (Elsie Hui, CUHK) 3. Teledermatology (Peter Soyer, UQ) 4. Tele-rehabilitation (Trevor Russell, UQ)
15:00-15:30	Tea
15:30-16:30 16:30-17:00	Session 4 - Case Studies in E-Health/E-Education Chair: Richard Wootton <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Panel Discussion – Challenges of e-health and e-education, including a critique of the case studies 2. Wrap up and the way forward