

U21 Health Sciences

Preliminary Agenda - U21 DEANS Meeting – Tec de Monterrey 2010

Friday 1 October, 12.30pm – 5pm

(venue to be advised)

Chairs: Iain Martin (Auckland) and
James Angus (Melbourne)

Aim of meeting:

To provide a forum to enable the Deans to discuss and debate matters that are core to the successful running of medical school and health faculties.

- 1. Governance and Management of Medical/Health Faculties
 - a. What has worked
 - b. What has not worked
 - c. Lessons learned
 - d. Is there an ongoing role for U21

- 2. Managing and maintaining relationships with the healthcare sector
 - a. What has worked
 - b. What has not worked
 - c. Lessons learned
 - d. Is there an ongoing role for U21

- 3. Growing the next generation of clinical academics
 - a. How do we encourage young graduates to enter academic medicine
 - b. Career pathways
 - c. What could U21 do to improve situation

- 4. Recruitment of medical students
 - a. local versus international
 - b. migration and workforce needs

- 5. Cross-fertilization between U21 medical/health faculties
 - a. How do we encourage linkages / research collaborations, cross-appointments
 - b. What is the role for fellowships and other specific activities versus general collaboration

- 6. Interactions with independent medical research institutes

- 7. U21 Health Sciences - future direction