

U21 Health Sciences

U21 Health Sciences Meeting - The University of Nottingham 13-15 September 2006

Tuesday 12 September 2006

18.00 Reception Trent Building

DAY 1 Wednesday 13 September 2006 Lecture Theatre 3, A Floor, Medical School

08.30 Registration

08.50 - 08.55 Welcome

Professor Herb Sewell, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, The University of Nottingham

08.55 - 09.00 Opening remarks

Professor Terence Stephenson (The University of Nottingham)

09.00 - 10.30 Problem-based learning

Co-Chairs: Professor Richard Donnelly (The University of Nottingham)
Dr Niv Patil (The University of Hong Kong)

Problem-based learning: Promising expectation or fitting despair?

Speaker: Professor Maggi Savin-Baden (Coventry University) -

As a part of this session, four speakers will debate the motion "This House believes that inquiry-driven open-ended, learning is inappropriate for a vocational qualification in the health professions", to be followed by questions and debate from the floor.

Proposer: Professor Gareth Williams (The University of Bristol)
Opposer: Ms Mary Chapple (The University of Nottingham)
2nd Proposer: Mr Andrew Raftery (Sheffield Hospitals NHS trust)
2nd Opposer: Associate Professor Gillian Webb (The University of Melbourne)

10.30 – 11.00 Morning Tea Foyer, A Floor, Medical School

11.00 - 12.30 Interprofessional Learning

Chair: Mr Simon Mockett (The University of Nottingham)

Speakers: Professor Debra Humphris (The University of Southampton)
Helen Armitage (Sheffield Hallam University)
Dr Lesley Bainbridge (The University of British Columbia)

12.30 - 13.00 U21 global e-health -

Panel discussion led by Professor Kendall Ho (The University of British Columbia) and Professor Peter Brooks (The University of Queensland). Panel members include the U21 global e-health steering committee members (Professor Richard Wootton, Dr Niv Patil, Professor Richard Scott) and a representative of the e-health and interprofessionalism working group (Professor Nick Shaw).

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch Committee rooms B83 and B89, B Floor Medical School

14.00 - 17.00 Discipline Meetings and Afternoon Tea

Dentistry

Seminar room B129, B Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Philip Lumley (The University of Birmingham)

Medicine

Lecture Theatre 3, A Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Terence Stephenson (The University of Nottingham)

Nursing

Seminar room B141, B Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Veronica James (The University of Nottingham)

Health & Rehabilitation Sciences

Seminar room B130, B Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Grahame Pope (The University of Nottingham)

Pharmacy

School of Pharmacy

Chair: Professor Claire Anderson (The University of Nottingham)

17.00 Close of meeting day 1

19.00 Discipline dinner arrangements

DAY 2

Thursday 14 September

Lecture Theatre 3, A Floor, Medical School

09.00 - 10.30 Student and staff exchange

Co-Chairs: Professor Claire Anderson (The University of Nottingham) and Mrs Heather Baker (The University of Auckland)

Speakers: Gail Armistead (The University of Nottingham)
Nicola Greenhill (The University of Nottingham)
Professor Joan McMeeken (The University of Melbourne)

10.30 -11.00 Morning tea and group photograph

Foyer, A Floor, Medical School

11.00 - 12.30 Complementary and alternative medicines within traditional therapies – debate

Associate Professor Marion Walker (The University of Nottingham) will introduce this session.

Professor Mike Saks (The University of Lincoln) will chair the debate and Professor Sally Thorne (The University of British Columbia) will lead questions.

As a part of this session, four speakers will debate the motion “Complementary and alternative medicine should definitely be incorporated in health care systems on the basis of cost effectiveness and health effectiveness evaluations”, to be followed by questions and voting from the floor.

Speakers for the motion are Professor De-an Guo (Chinese Academy of Medicine) and Professor Kelvin Chan (University of Wolverhampton).

Speakers against the motion are Professor Peter Brooks (The University of Queensland), and Professor Kenneth Muir (The University of Nottingham).

12.30 - 13.00 U21 Health Informatics course update

Professor Peter Harris (The University of Melbourne)

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch

Committee rooms B83 and B89, B Floor, Medical School

(Executive Committee meeting)

Committee room B75A, B Floor, Medical School

14.00 - 17.00 Discipline Meetings and Afternoon Tea

Dentistry Seminar room B129, B Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Philip Lumley (The University of Birmingham)

Medicine Lecture Theatre 3, A Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Terence Stephenson (The University of Nottingham) or nominee

Nursing Seminar room B141, B Floor, Medical School

Chair: Professor Veronica James (The University of Nottingham)

Health & Rehabilitation Sciences Seminar room B130, B Floor, Medical School

Associate Professor Marion Walker (The University of Nottingham)

Pharmacy School of Pharmacy

Chair: Professor Claire Anderson (The University of Nottingham)

17.00 Close of meeting day 2

18.45 (approx) Bus transport to Prestwold Hall

U21 Health Sciences Dinner at Prestwold Hall

23.00 (approx) Bus transport to Nottingham hotels

23.30 (approx) Arrival at Nottingham hotels

DAY 3 Friday 15 September

Lecture Theatre 3, A Floor, Medical School

09.00 - 11.00 Modernizing the healthcare workforce

Co-chairs: Professor Veronica James (The University of Nottingham)
Professor Peter Brooks (The University of Queensland)

Speaker: Professor Elizabeth Fradd (The University of Nottingham)

This session will include a presentation and follow-up discussion on a range of themes including broad healthcare policies; education, workforce planning, shortages, and movement between countries and between professions.

The themes will be further explored by speakers from a range of professions and countries.

Speakers include Dr Sophia Chan (Nursing, The University of Hong Kong), Professor Kelvin Foong, (Dentistry, National University of Singapore), Dr Arthur Garson (The University of Virginia); Professor James Angus (The University of Melbourne); Associate Professor Eva Holmstrom (Physiotherapy, Lund University), and Dr Jeff Harrison (Pharmacy, The University of Auckland).

11.00 - 11.30 Morning Tea Foyer, A Floor, Medical School

11.30 - 11.45 Report from the Executive Committee
Professor Terence Stephenson (The University of Nottingham)

11.45 - 12.30 Discipline meeting reports

12.30 - 12.45 Closing remarks
Professor Terence Stephenson (The University of Nottingham)

12.45 - 13.00 Presentation – 2007 host university
Professor Shiu-Kum Lam (The University of Hong Kong)

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch Committee rooms B83 and B89, B Floor, Medical School