

Dentistry Discipline Group

International Dental Student Peer Review Audit Project

- Led by UBC
- Student partnerships across schools
- Challenges with curriculum timing
- Outcomes
 - Going well, increasing student involvement
 - Student confidence in their own learning and realisation of broader educational picture

Trans-cultural Communication Project Update

- Melbourne and UBC
- Data collected
- Awaiting analysis

The Use of Oral Medicine web-based lecture material in developing countries for dental student teaching

- Melbourne - New project
- May look towards following approach being explored in forensic odontology

Forensic Odontology

- Melbourne and Birmingham
- Development of a flagship e-learning project using web-based delivery
- Outcome
 - Conversion of existing lecture material to innovative interactive format
 - Positive evaluation by students
 - Plans to develop further

Developments in Dental Education

- Birmingham report on ADEE competencies document
- Opportunity to compare and contrast approaches to curricula in different parts of the world
- Discussions around barriers and challenges in global migration of the workforce

Seoul 2009

- Progress reports on
 - Web platform for International Peer Review student project - UBC and others
 - Transcultural research project - Melbourne and UBC
 - Forensic Odontology - Melbourne and Birmingham
- Compare and contrast decontamination procedures - all schools
- Update on new dental schools, Tec de Monterey, Melbourne, Queensland and Birmingham
- Staff and student exchanges - funding
- UN Millennium development Goals U 21 project